Read, Read, Read Project Evaluation – Canadian Author

	Mastering	Advancing	Progressing	Emerging	Beginning
Content: • Explores thoughts, ideas, feelings, and experiences. • Comprehends and responds to a variety of types of texts/media.	○ Demonstrates insightful and precise understanding of each novel element: characters (protagonist and antagonist), setting, plot, theme, conflict, point of view are thoroughly explored and include Canadian Content ○ uses specific supporting details to identify the ways in which this text reflects elements of the Canadian culture		○ I have generally developed each novel element: characters (protagonist and antagonist), setting, plot, theme, conflict, pont of view and I include Canadian content and culture ○ uses relevant but general supporting details to support the elements of Canadian culture		○ lacks development ○ Demonstrates unclear, limited &/or inaccurate understanding of each novel element: characters (protagonist and antagonist), setting, plot, theme, conflict ○ uses irrelevant, inaccurate, &/or very limited supporting details
Organization & Writer Engagement: • Manages ideas and information. • Organizes, presents and revises thoughts and opinions to communicate ideas.	○ The web has a unique order of ideas and information is clearly and purposely arranged to maintain coherence and clarity ○ specific words, expressions and quotes are used accurately, deliberately and effectively to reflect the Canadian content.		○ The web is informative and neatly done. ○ general &/or repetitive words and expressions are sometimes used when specific words would have been more effective		○ introduction &/or conclusions may be lacking, and ideas and information lacks organization and achieves little coherence and clarity ○ general &/or repetitive words and expressions are consistently used and show that the writer has little to no interest in the task
Revision & Final Presentation: • Manages ideas and information. • Organizes, presents and revises thoughts and opinions to communicate ideas.	○ finished product of "mind meister" or "web" exhibits exceptional care & pride in work well done ○ Written presentation (web) exhibit an impressive absence of error considering the complexity &/or length of the response ○ Visual & oral presentations appear to be fully prepared, so that the presentation is smooth and confident		○ finished product is fully completed and appears to have been pre-planned ○ Written presentations contain only occasional errors that do not overly interrupt the flow or quality of the communication ○ Visual & oral presentations appear to be adequately prepped/practiced ahead of time, though may lack confidence at points		○ work submitted appears to be poorly planned &/or unfinished ○ Written work contains frequent jarring errors that impede communication ○ Visual & oral presentations do not appear to have been prepared ahead of time ○ Zero Tolerance Writing Errors exist
				* A score in either of the shaded columns indicates that the assignment MUST be improved upon and resubmitted.	